Property Description

2 bedroom flat in Porto, next to Rotunda da Boavista and Casa da Música metro station.

With 118 m² of area, consisting of two bedrooms, a large living room, full bathroom, laundry, adds a private garage, an attribute of great value in the central area of the city, and storage, inserted in a building with lift.

The bright living room is ideal for living and dining environments, the kitchen has essential appliances, two bedrooms with built-in wardrobes, ensuring organisation and comfort and a bathroom, functional, with sober and current finishes.

Located in one of the most cosmopolitan areas of Porto, the flat is located in an area served by schools, supermarkets, pharmacies, hospitals and public transport, including metro, bus and taxis, favouring urban mobility. The surroundings are distinguished by the offer of local commerce.

By car, Porto's international airport is about 15 minutes away, as well as shopping centres, main tourist attractions and leisure areas. The surroundings are marked by security, green areas and easy access to the city's main roads, making this property an excellent option for those looking for quality of life in the heart of Porto.

This property is rented until April 2027, it represents an opportunity for those looking for an investment solution.
